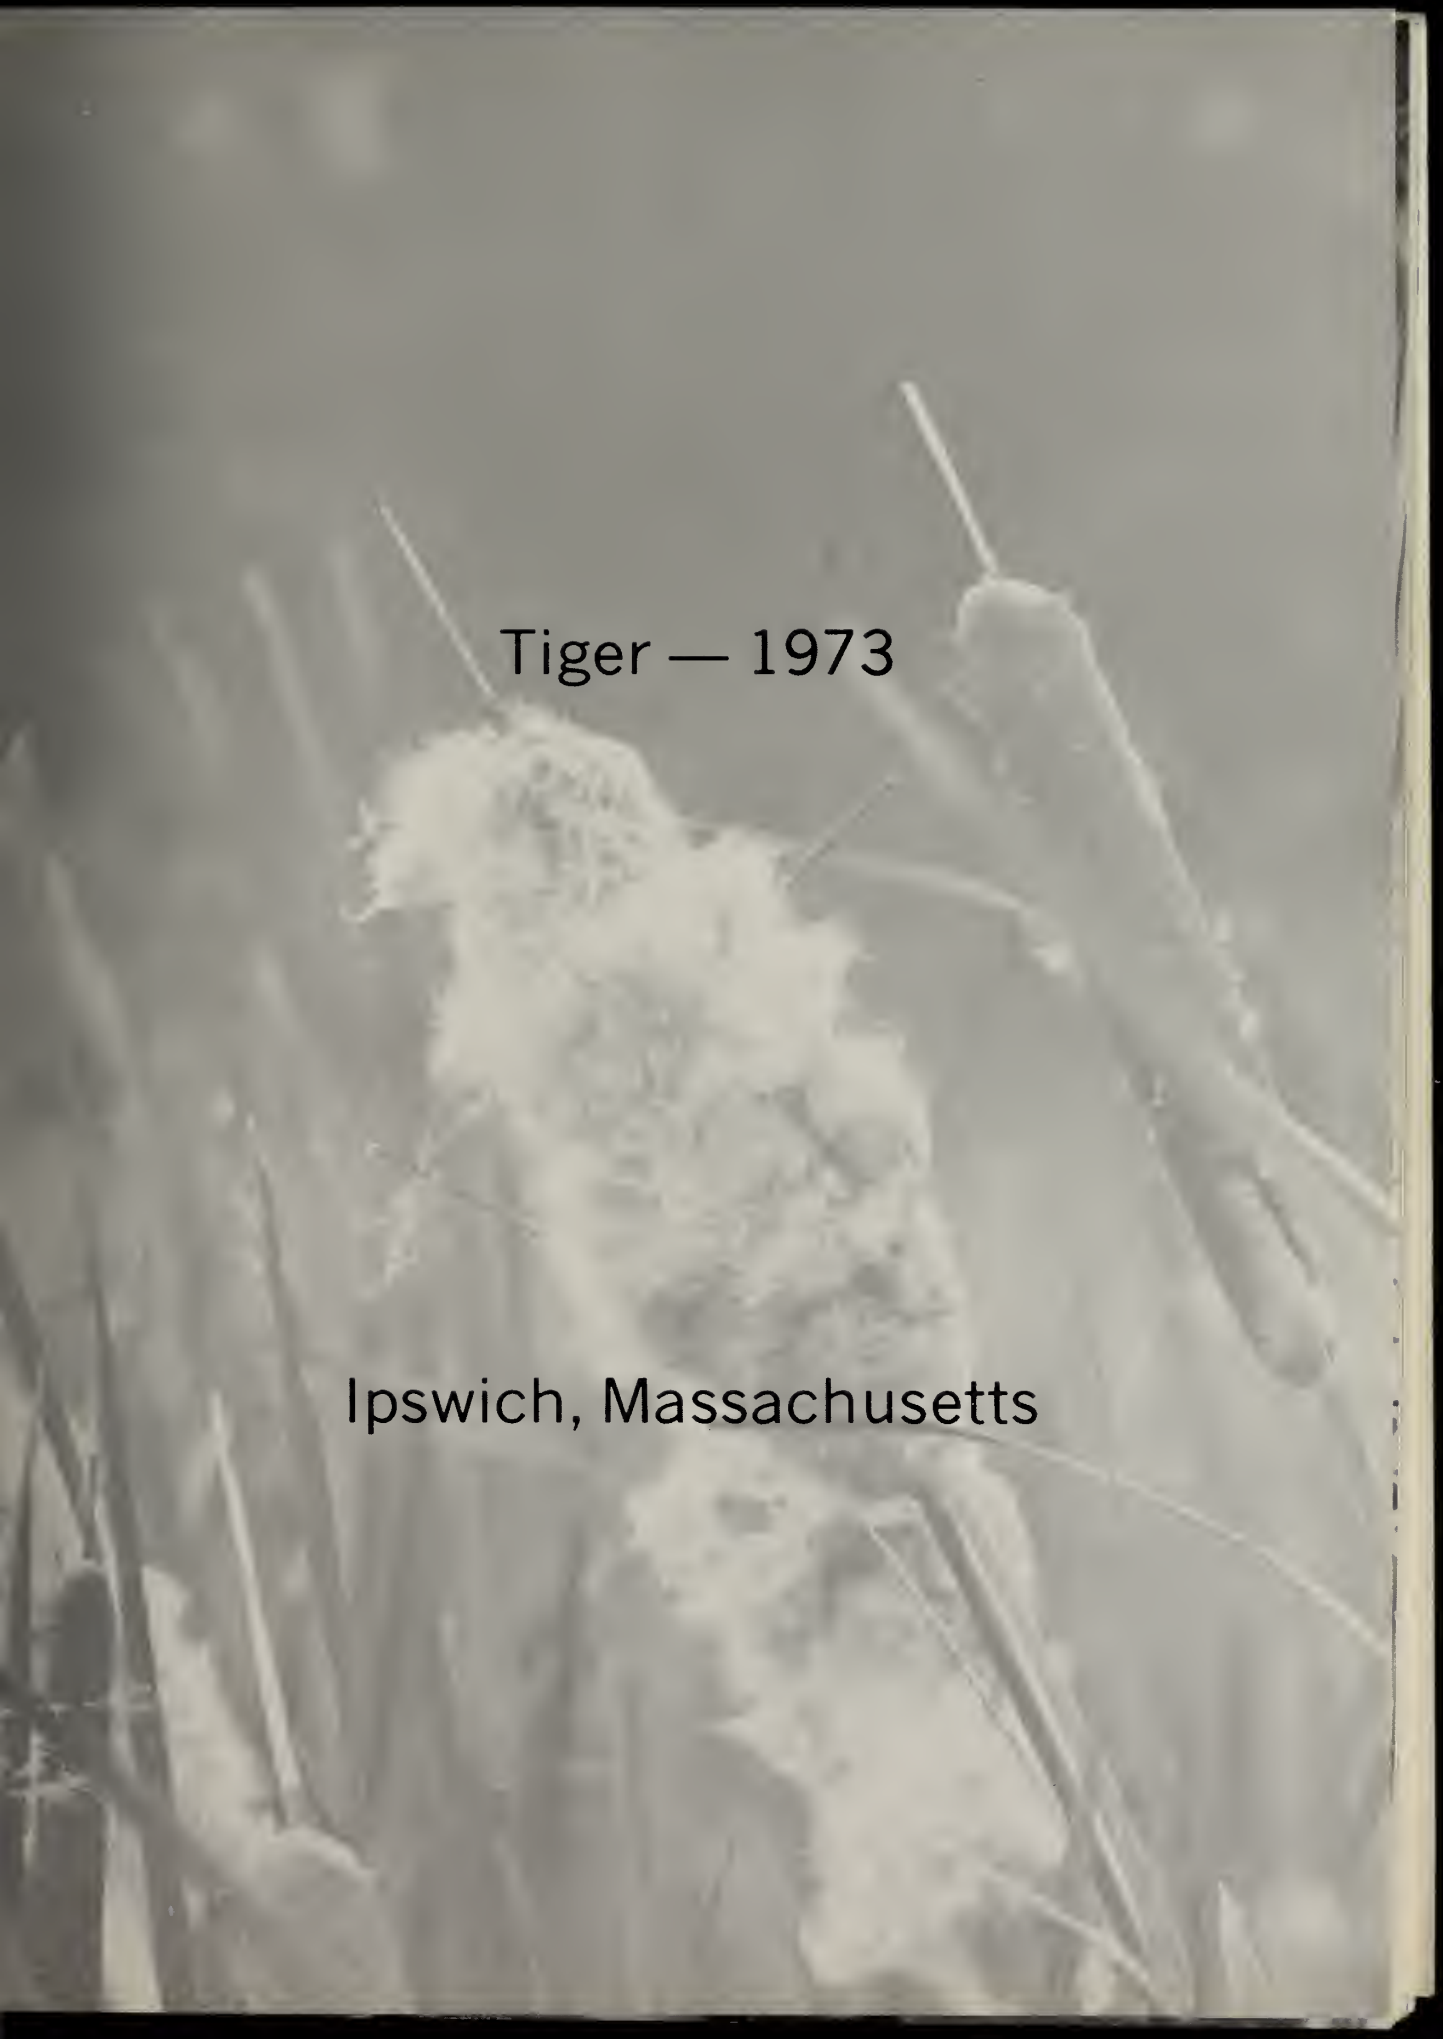
Ipswich 1973



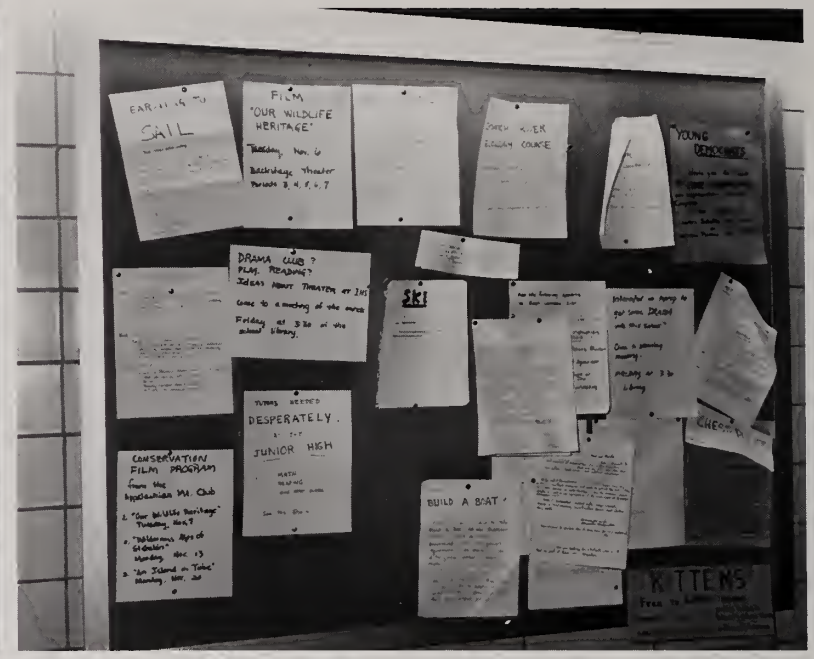
Tiger — 1973

Ipswich, Massachusetts

All during our lifetime, there has been war. This was has wrought destruction within our nation and touched the peoples of many other nations. It has violated the morals and conscience of some, and crippled or killed countless others. Now, as we leave the security of our school days and enter a world to which we are yet strangers, we enter a world of peace, a world that must reconstruct and re-evaluate the shattered ideals of its people. The first and most important phase of our lives has come to an end and with it, the suffering and anguish of a war. Therefore, we the Class of 1973, as a memorial to those who have suffered in this war, dedicate this book to the year 1973, the year that peace came, to the men who gave their lives to make this end possible, especially those from Ipswich; Paul F. Doyon, John Mattarocchia, Robert E. Dudek, and William Gresch, to those who did return but will carry the scars of battle with them as long as they live, the P.O.W.'s, who have lost precious years of their lives to suffering and confinement far from their homes, to those who suffered for their ideals, which could not condone a war, and to untold hundreds, whose stories will never be complete. We dedicate this book with the hope that the world of our children will also be a world of peace.

Teenagers are subject to a far wider range of influences outside the classroom — influences from their own peer culture, as well as from the adult culture transmitted by parents and the mass media.

D. Riesman



There is the clearest evidence that schools can be humane and free without in any way sacrificing intellectual development.

Adolescence is the period during which a young person learns who he is, and how he really feels. It is the time during which he differentiates himself from his culture, though on culture's terms.

All Religion, all life, all art, all expression come down to this: to the effort of the human soul to break its barrier of loneliness, of intolerable loneliness, and make some contact with another seeking soul.

(Marquis)

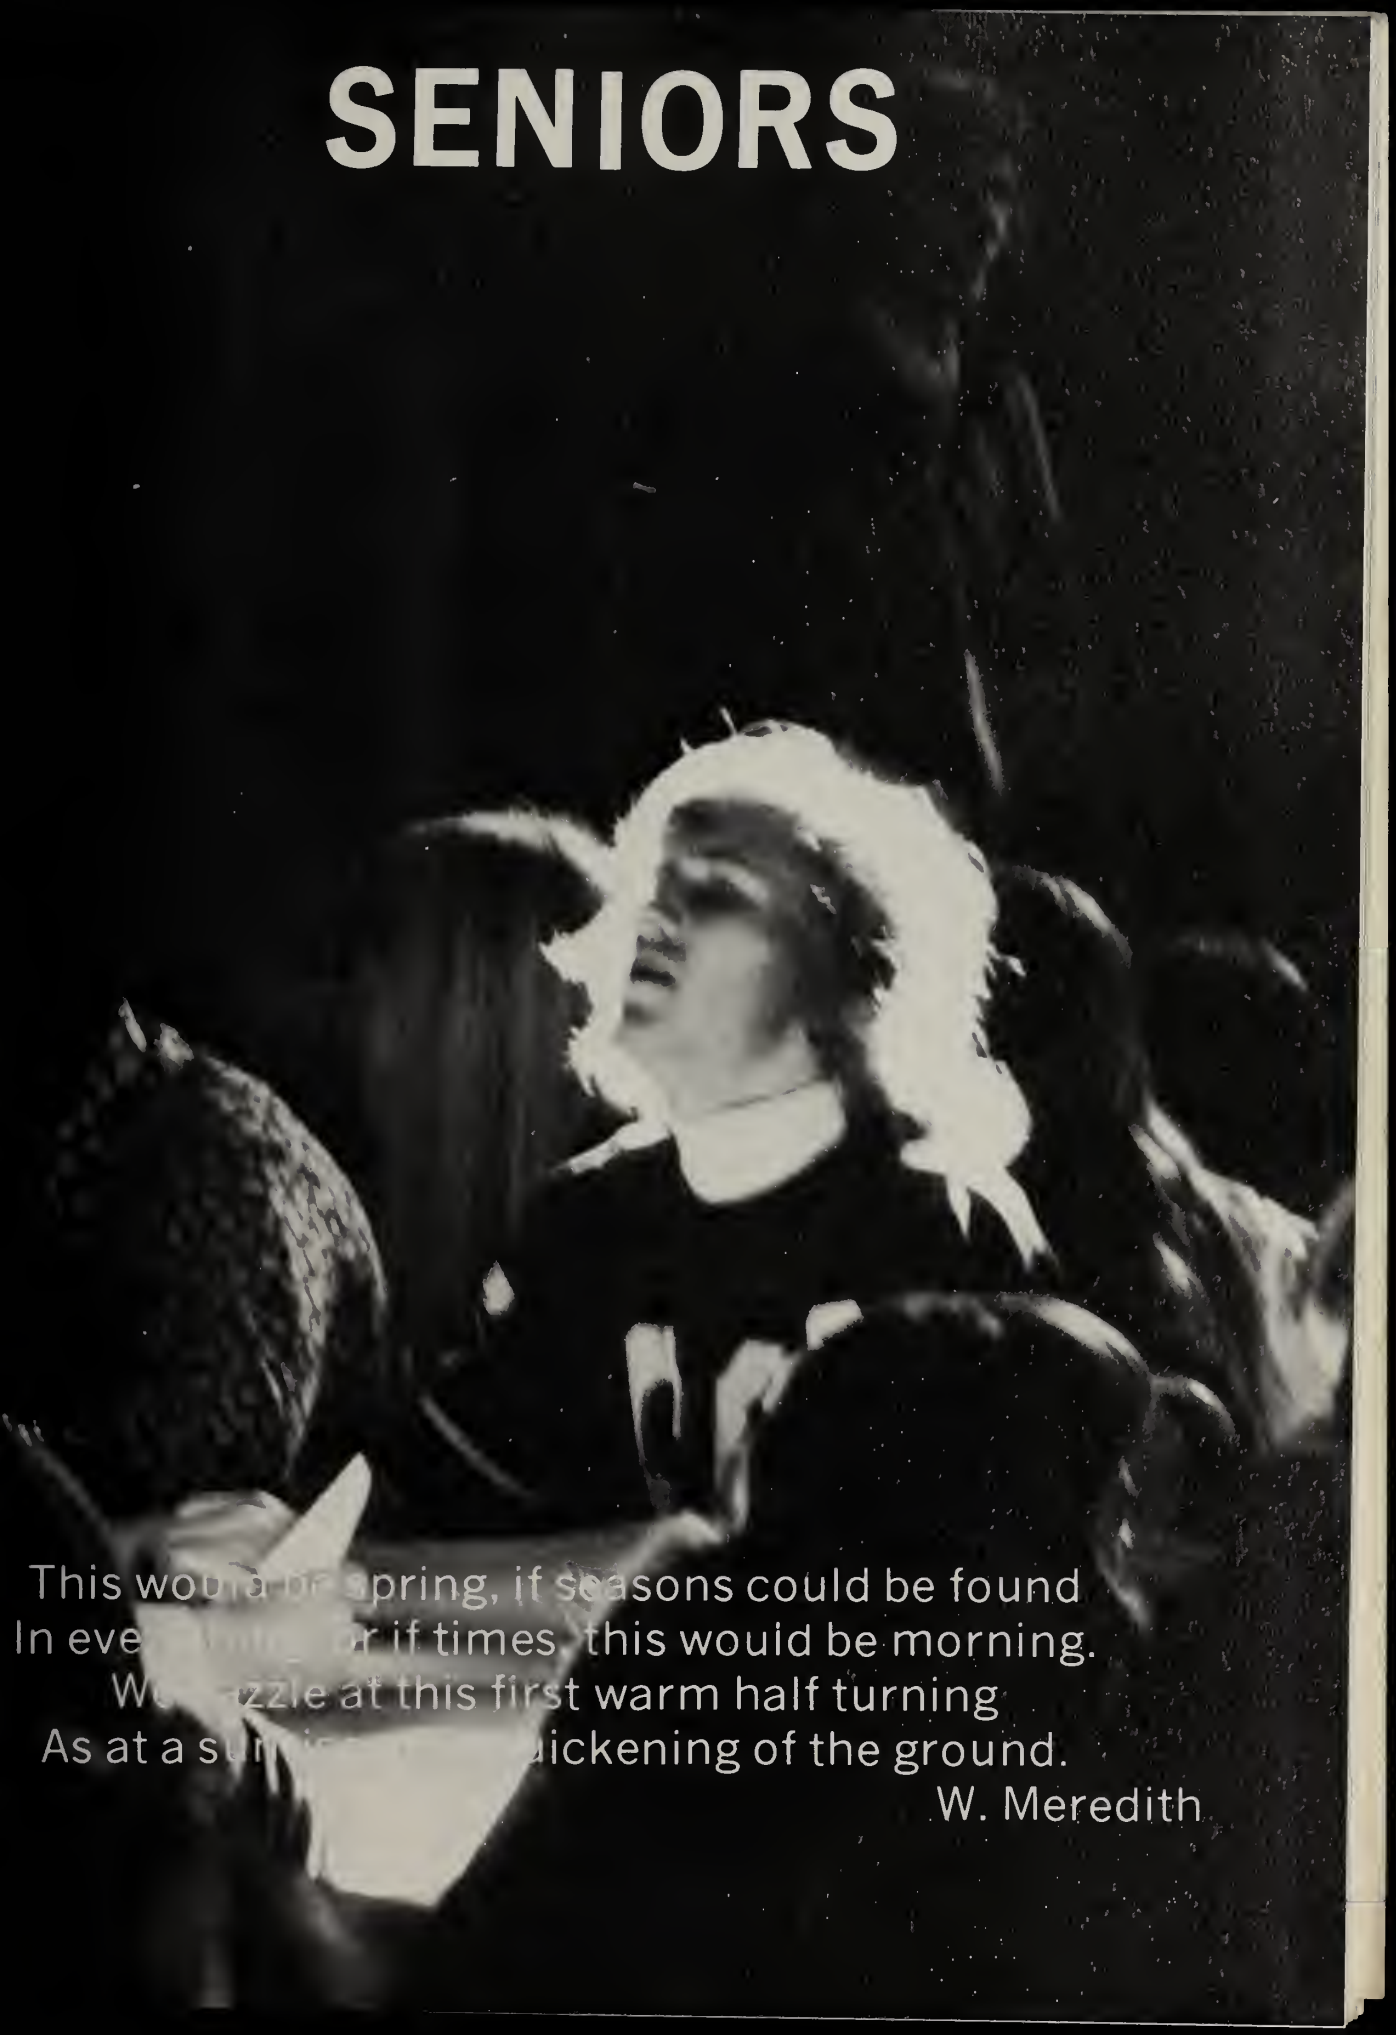
The question was put to him, what hope is, and his answer was "the dream of a waking man".

(Laertius)

If only all the hands that reach could teach.

though summer turns to winter
and the present disappears,
the laughter we were glad to share
will echo through the years.

SENIORS



This would be spring, if seasons could be found
In eve[illegible] or if times, this would be morning.
We [illegible]zzle at this first warm half turning
As at a su[illegible] quickening of the ground.

Our Inter

I come from a small and beautiful country of South America, Ecuador. I'm nineteen years old and at this age it is easy to learn innumerable experiences in this grand colossus of North America, the United States.

To be an AFS student is a wonderful thing. I have the opportunity to know other towns, other people, and other ways of living.

Patricio Abad Herrera

I couldn't forget the nice Ipswich High, its students, its very nice girls, and its untiring teachers, that never stop in the teaching of the young people. The teachers are like the trees, the older they are, the more they sink their roots in the earth. Thank you Ipswich High for the beautiful ideas that you gave to me.

As you people can see, I consider myself another very happy tiger, and this is a good reason and honor for wishing all the improvements for the high school. GO TIGERS!

Go placidly amid the
noise and haste,
and remember what
peace there may be
in silence.

As far as possible
without surrender
be on good terms
with all persons.

Speak your truth
quietly and clearly;
and listen to others,
they too have their
story.

If you compare yourself
to others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.
Enjoy your achievements
as well as your plans.

Be yourself.
Especially do not feign affection.

Neither be cynical about
love;

for in the face of all aridity and
disenchantment
it is perennial
as the grass.

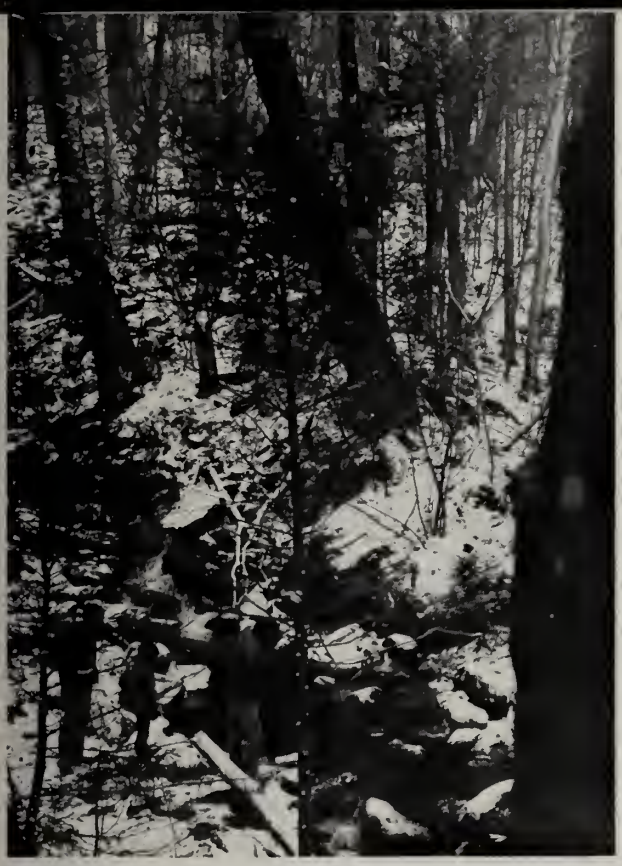
Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.



You are a child of the universe. No less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace
with God whatever
you conceive him
to be.

and whatever your labors
and aspirations

in the noisy confusion
of life
keep peace with your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery
and broken dreams

it is still a beautiful world.

Be careful.
Strive to be happy.

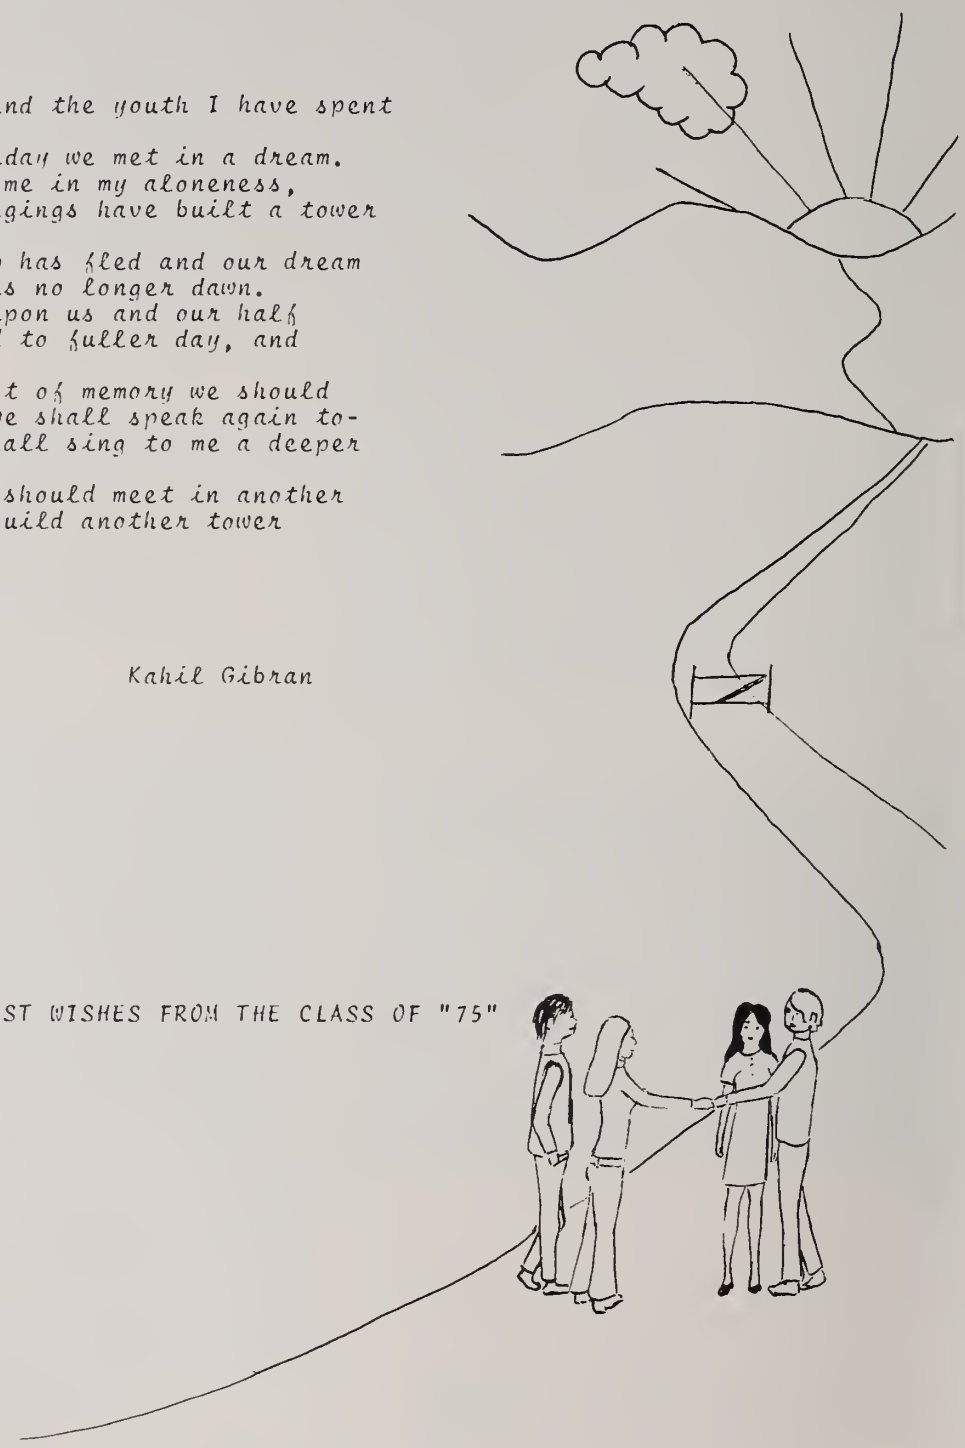
Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream.
You have sung to me in my aloneness,
and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.
But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.
The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.
If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.
And if our hands should meet in another dream, we shall build another tower in the sky.

Kahil Gibran



BEST WISHES FROM THE CLASS OF "75"

"I don't know why we are always having to say good-bye to friends. Why can't we get all the people together in the world that we really like and then just stay together? I guess that wouldn't work. Someone would leave. Someone always leaves and then we have to say good-bye.
I hate good-byes.
I know what I need.
I need more hellos."
